

METRO

A DANCE FOR THE EARTH

A teepee and a group of people joining hands provide an unusual spectacle at the Washington Monument. A pipe ceremony, led by Indian elders, began a "Prayer Vigil for the Earth" seeking an end to pollution. Afterward, the group of about 200 held hands and danced. Story on Page B4.

BY JAMES A. PARCELL—THE WASHINGTON POST